INFORMATION FORM - ESTATE PLANNING

Please complete and return this Information Form to the best of your ability. Once you have returned the form we will contact you to set up a telephone call or in person meeting.  A $$ 500.00$ retainer is required prior to opening your file, please make arrangements for payment by cheque, e-transfer, or online at: https://secure.lawpay.com/pages/entrustlaw/trust-new

Why the Form Matters

Our analysis of your Information Form improves the outcome for your Estate. Consider a few examples:

- Title: The name(s) on the title to assets may affect how they pass on death, irrespective of the terms of an owner's Will. Joint assets have complex rules governing whether or not they will pass to a surviving joint owner. We can help you understand this.
- Beneficiary Designations: Designating a beneficiary may direct an asset to a beneficiary upon the owner's death, outside of the terms of owner's Will. Beneficiary designations need to be considered as part of the overarching scheme. This avoids potential concerns with mis-matched taxation/benefit from the asset, premature receipt of the asset by a young person and estate liquidity concerns.
- Personal Relationships & Agreements: Relationships between people or written agreements may create obligations restricting how you may dispose of assets at death. A failure to consider this could create litigation in your Estate.
- Probate Fees: Knowledge of this information allows us to identify potential opportunities to minimize probate fees.

How to Return and Complete the Forms

In completing the forms:

- Precise Values: Rounding asset and liability values is acceptable.
- Account Numbers: It is discretionary whether you provide account and policy numbers at this stage. To do so may allow you to create a valuable inventory you may save for your Executor.
- Additional Information: If there are assets/liabilities or issues that apply to you that are not covered by this Information Form, please let us know.
- Planning Instructions: Please do not write instructions on these forms for how your Estate is to pass. This is to be discussed in our meeting.

Cost Efficiency

Your completion of this Information Form with all particulars maintains cost efficiency. It means the important information we require is available when we begin our project. It avoids additional fees for our time spent seeking this information at later stages.

Sometimes clients ask to provide information via their own financial summary document, or asset statements from an institution. We can work distil information provided in these alternate manners. Typically, this is less cost-effective to the client, given it requires extra time.

Lawyer-Client Relationship
Please note that in order to establish a lawyer-client relationship we must complete and sign an Engagement Letter.
